RACING IS WELL GOVERNED LEONARDO II. AT THE DOWNS STARS FOR GREAT RACES COFFROTH HANDICAP WINNER

Governor Miller's Sensible Ideas About New York Turf.

Holds Conference at Albany About Proposed Combined Sporting Commission.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 10.—About a score of writers on sporting topics in this state came to Albany in response to an invitation of V. Ward Smith, secretary to Governor milter, in the belief that their opinions were sought in connection with the governing of sports by commission. The governor conveyed the impression that the summons had been issued because of the belief that the writers had some questions to ask him. He declared that there was no legislation pending before him, but that he would be glad to hear from anybody present.

him, but that he would be glad to hear from any-body present.

Out of the discussion which followed and which was confined largely to the fallacy of placing rac-ing, boxing, baseball and wrestling under a single commission came the following opinion by the gov-ernor, when his attention was called to the fact that racing and baseball had been well handled: "I am frank to say that whie many people think otherwise, I do not think that the state ought to attempt any regulation of people who can regulate themselves. We have got enough to do to look after the things that need regulating."

Later, when racing and its handling by a com-mission was being touched upon, the governor inter-jected the remark: "It seems to be well gov-erned."

NEW YORK RACING COMMISSION HISTORY.

The original State Racing commission was appointed by Governor Levi P. Morton when he signed the Percy-Gray law in 1895. It was composed of Messrs. August Belmont, New York, E. D. Morgan of Wheatley Hills, L. I., and John Sanford of Amsterdam, N. Y. This commission was clothed with a certain and well-defined authority. They were empowered to license all running race meetings in the state of New York conducted under the reasonable rules and regulations of the Jockey Club, and they were enjoined to make in their annual report such suggestions to the legislature as they thought would be helpful to the breeding industry and racing, which are so dovetailed that they cannot be separated, the one depending absolutely upon the other.

Prior to the appointment of this commission racing was in disrepute. Evils had crept into the sport

Prior to the appointment of this commission racing was in disrepute. Evils had crept into the sport which threatened to destroy it. A strong hand was needed at the helm. Among the sinister influences overcome were the poolroom ring, racing at night by electric light and collusive litigation, whose object was to destroy all racing authority. The light was let into dark places and the turf was finally rid of many disreputables.

A period of regeneration followed. Racing was re-established as a popular sport. It engaged the attention of men of stability and influence throughout the country. Horse breeding was greatly stimulated. Many new importations of blood stock were made from England and France to enrich our own thoroughbred families. Through the initiative of the commission racing was practically subordinated to the welfare of the breeding industry and special events were framed with a view to stimulating interest everywhere in the thoroughbred horse.

INFLUENCE OF BREEDING BUREAU.

INFLUENCE OF BREEDING BUREAU.

One of the best influences employed was through the medium of the Bureau of Breeding of the Jockey Club, which was established for the benefit of the farmers of this state at the suggestion of the commission.

Legislation hostile to racing in 1908 and 1910, however, drove some of the largest studs out of existence—American stallions and mares were sent to Argentina, Australasia, England, France and Germany. The industry was so crippled that the state racing commission, which at that time was composed of Messrs. James W. Wadsworth of Genesee, N. Y.; H. K. Knapp of New York and Hon. John Sanford of Amsterdam, N. Y., employed the following language in their report to the legislature of 1912: "The existing statutes have terminated running races in this state and if the present condition of affairs be long continued the breeding and development of thoroughbred horses will entirely case, and the type will disappear from the United States."

States."

In 1908 there were 11,000 mares and 900 thoroughbred stallions in the United States and 4,400 fonls were registered with the Jockey Club. In 1913 there were but 7,500. Some idea of the loss sustained by the breeding industry may be gleaned from the fact that it is estimated that the supply today consists of only 4,750 mares and 500 stallions, while the thoroughbred foals registered in 1920 purples of 1,841. numbered 1,841.

while the thoroughbred foals registered in 1920 numbered 1,841.

It takes five years to produce a horse and it will be a long time under favorable conditions before former records will be equaled. An established policy in connection with breeding and racing is imperative. Racing depends entirely upon thoroughbred horses passing in a steady yearly stream of two, three and four-year olds; in the stakes and purses offered by the racing associations in regulated and defined sequence like the curriculum of an educational institution. A break brings production to a standstill and resumption later is a matter of slow growth.

Racing is the only sport that can be injured to such an extent as the figures given above indicate. Baseball, boxing and all athletic sports of other character have but to possess the patronage of the public and an organization. The material required is ready overnight.

It is apparent that the conservation of racing and breeding calls for special knowledge, and that a commission eminently qualifield to govern and safeguard other sports would be at sea in handling problems in connection with them. It is an error to rate racing as a spectacle—an amusement for the public only—and, therefore, that it is a luxury.

The most interesting event of the morning, however, was the arrival from Hot Springs, Ark., of the Xalapa Farm stable, headed by the Derby candidates Leonardo II. and Bon Homme. A large crowd braved the cold for several hours waiting to get a glimpse of these two horses. They came in for much admiration as a result of their splendid appearance, James W. McClelland brought sixteen thoroughbreds, eleven of them two-year-olds, from the vapor city and the trip was made without mishap. Every horse was unloaded with a normal temperature and the Derby hopes were quite frisky while being led from the train clute to their stalls. Leonardo II. has developed in size and conformation far more than any of the other Derby horses seen here thus far this spring. In addition to Leonardo II. and Bon Homme, McClelland brought Despair, which is also eligible to the Derby; Eternal, The Wanderer and the following two-year-olds: My Play (brother of Man o' War), Good Time (brother to Hourless), Missionary, Ballot Mark, Sweepy, Southern Cross, Poe, Laucky Hour, Swagger, Bengalese and Alex Hamilton.

Some of the Xalapa horses will be shipped to Lexington, but McClelland said today that he had not decided as yet which ones he will take there.

To Centimeter, G. L. Blackford's three-year-old son of Meelick, fell the honor this morning of turning in the best work-out of any of the western Derby eligibles. He ran one and one-eighth miles in 1:55 at Churchill Downs; the first mile in 1:41%. Jockey Sammy McGraw, who rode him, eased him up to almost a canter at the end of the mile. The Meelick colt worked with blinkers on and minus a pacemaker. His work-out was pronounced highly meritorious by trainer Dick Vestal, as he never fully extends himself unless another horse runs with him. He ran the first quarter in 23%, three-eighths in 35%, half mile in 48%, five-eighths in in 1:01%, three-quarters in 1:15% and seven-eighths in 1:04%, McGraw took him up a bit after going five-eighths and then released from restraint.

Coyne and Brother Batch were sent a mile together in 1:43% and they galloped out an additional eighth in 1:59%. In this workout Brother Batch clearly demonstrated that it will avail trainer C. C. Van Meter little to continue preparing him for the Derby, as his stablemate beat him off and jockey Mack Garner, who rode Coyne, had a strong hold on his mount in an effort to keep him alongside of his companion. Brother Batch continued to drop back, however. The opinion was expressed generally by horsemen who witnessed the performance that he will not do for the Derby. The cold weather might have affected his throat ailment some, but at any rate his showng was poor.

Bent Bolt was under restraint all the way in a workout of a mile in 1:48%, and he was galloped another eighth, finishing in 2:04%. Jockey Jack Hanover rode him and after letting him run the first half mile in 49% he eased him up to a slower pace, covering the three-quarters in 1:19%.

Over at Douglas Park Muskallonge, from "Bud" Fisher's stable, was sent over the Derby route of one and one-quarter miles in 2:16. This was good work, considering track conditions, and the colt was never allowed to extend himself. He galloped the first quarter in 26%, half mile in 53, three-quarters in 1:20% and mile in 1:48%.
Fantoche, owned by Alex Gordon, trainer of Muskallonge, ran a mile in 1:47% and, like his stablemate, was under restraint all the way. He covered the first half in 51%.

SAN DIEGO. Cal., April 10.—Be Frank, carrying the colors of the Bronx Stable and the top weight of 131 pounds, captured the $20,000 Coffroth Handicap at Tijuana this afternoon before an immense crowd. Rifle was second and Wynnewood third. Rifle at one time had a lead of ten lengths, but tired from his fast early pacemaking and was no match for Be Frank when the final test came. The race was marred by a bad fall, in which Edwina, The Desert and Nepperhan went down. Luckily, horses and riders escaped serious injury.

Fencing in a faultless manner, William ("Red") Walker's Coronado captured first honors in the mile and three-sixteenths hurdle handicap yester-day before a large Saturday attendance. The gelding took the hazards in a manner which left little doubt in the minds of the racing public as to which is the best hurdler here. Coronado took the first obstacle head and head with Bobby Fib and then drew away into a long lead and, galloping along easily in front, won pulled up. Second place provided the contest of the race, as Appletto, Adorock and Certain Point fought it out through the final eighth. Appletto proved the gamest and outstayed Adorock for second money.

William Walker made it a double for the afternoon when his steady going campaigner Nepperhan led past the judges in the seventh race. The King Jenis horse outclessed his appearats and, facing under stout restraint, won as his rider pleased. Pierrot was an easy second, while Audrey K. was best of the others.

Favorites or second choices accounted for the entire eight races and the form backers enjoyed a profitable afternoon. The sport opened with a two-year-old race in which the filly Polly Wale was backed to the exclusion of all others. Paying 1 to 2 in the machines, she ran past the leaders in the stretch and won going away, with Plow Steel and Flotation her closest rivals.

Robert Lee, the old gelding which was shipped here after a season of racing on the Hawaiian Islands, made good for the first time when he won a nose decision over Careen in th finish.

The speedy mare Hazel Dale made it two in a row when she showed her heels to her opponents in the sixth race at five-eighths.

With La Bete Noire away badly in the final scramble of the day, Perch found but little contention to force him to do his best and in consequence the consistent sprinter won with speed in reserve, after making the pace fast throughout

F. Coltiletti jumped into the limelight at Bowie by riding nine winners during the past week, taking the honors from Marinelli, who was a close second with eight. E. Coyne and Brother Batch were sent a mile together in 1:43% and they galloped out an additional eighth in 1:59%. In this workout Brother Batch clearly demonstrated that it will avail trainer C. C. Van Meter little to continue preparing him for the Derby, as his stablemate beat him off and jockey Mack Garner, who rode Coyne, had a strong hold on his mount in an effort to keep him alongside of his companion. Brother Batch continued to drop back, however. The opinion was expressed generally by horsemen who witnessed the performance that he will not do for the Derby. The cold weather might have affected his throat ailment some, but at any rate his showng was poor.

Bent Bolt was under restraint all the way in a workout of a mile in 1:48%, and he was galloped another eighth, finishing in 2:04%. Jockey Jack Hanover rode him and after letting him run the first half mile in 49% he eased him up to a slower pace, covering the three-quarters in 1:19%.

Over at Douglas Park Muskallonge, from "Bud" Fisher's stable, was sent over the Derby route of one and one-quarter miles in 2:16. This was good work, considering track conditions, and the colt was never allowed to extend himself. He galloped the first quarter in 26%, half mile in 53, three-quarters in 1:20% and mile in 1:48%.
Fantoche, owned by Alex Gordon, trainer of Muskallonge, ran a mile in 1:47% and, like his stablemate, was under restraint all the way. He covered the first half in 51%.
Frank McKenna, who was forced to absent himself from winter racing because of illness, was an arrival from his home in St. Louis.
John C. Ferriss came in this morning from visits in Pensacola, Fla., and his old home, Nashville, Ten.

LATEST LEXINGTON TURF GOSSIP.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 10.—The track Saturday, as a result of heavy rain Friday, was externely muddy. Accordingly there was no work of moment. The track, however, is rapidly drying day, as a result tremely muddy.

Racing secretary William H. Shelley went over to Louisville Saturday to remain until Monday and get a line on the horses that will come here from that point.

Admiral Carey Grayson, after a week here as the gnest of John E. Madden and, in company with Messrs. Montfort and B. B. Jones, left Saturday morning for his home at Washington, saying that he had greatly enjoyed his visit.

Jockey Earl Pool motored down from Lexington last night and returned there tonight. "If you want to see fast horses and horses ready to run, just come to Lexington," was his reply to a horseman's question as to how the horses there are

A. F. Dayton brought eight horses here from Bowie. Jockey C. Parrish, an appprentice rider, came with him.

Be Frank Victorious in $20,000 Stake Feature at Tijuana.

Race Marred by Fall, Edwina, The Desert and Nepperhan Going Down.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., April 10.—Be Frank, carrying the colors of the Bronx Stable and the top weight of 131 pounds, captured the $20,000 Coffroth Handicap at Tijuana this afternoon before an immense crowd. Rifle was second and Wynnewood third. Rifle at one time had a lead of ten lengths, but tired from his fast early pacemaking and was no match for Be Frank when the final test came. The race was marred by a bad fall, in which Edwina. The Desert and Nepperhan went down. Luckily, horses and riders escaped serious injury.

Fencing in a faultless manner, William ("Red") Walker's Coronado captured first honors in the mile and three-sixteenths hurdle handicap yesterday before a large Saturday attendance. The gelding took the hazards in a manner which left little doubt in the minds of the racing public as to which is the best hurdler here. Coronado took the first obstacle head and head with Bobby Fib and then drew away into a long lead and, galloping along easily in front, won pulled up. Second place provided the contest of the race, as Appletto, Adorock and Certain Point fought it out through the final eighth. Appletto proved the gamest and outstayed Adorock for second money.

William Walker made it a double for the afternoon when his steady going campaigner Nepperhan led past the judges in the seventh race. The King Jenes horse outclussed his monants and, racing under stout restraint, won as his rider pleased. Pierrot was an easy second, while Audrey K. was best of the others.

Favorites or second choices accounted for the entire eight races and the form backers enjoyed a profitable afternoon. The sport opened with a two-year-old race in which the filly Polly Wale was backed to the exclusion of all others. Paying 1 to 2 in the machines, she ran past the leaders in the stretch and won going away, with Plow Steel and Flotation her closest rivals.

Robert Lee, the old gelding which was shipped here after a season of racing on the Hawaiian Islands, made good for the first time when he won a nose decision over Careen in the s finish.

The speedy mare Hazel Dale made it two in a row when she showed her heels to her opponents in the sixth race at five-eighths.

With La Bete Noire away badly in the final scramble of the day, Perch found but little contention to force him to do his best and in consequence the consistent sprinter won with speed in reserve, after making the pace fast throughout

THIRTY LEADING AMERICAN JOCKEYS

The opening of the Maryland spring racing season brought into action some of the real stars of the saddle and from now on changes may be expected in the standing of the leading jockeys. F. Coltiletti jumped into the limelight at Bowie by riding nine winners during the past week, taking the honors from Marinelli, who was a close second with eight. E. Taylor, with seven victories, was another who figured prominently. Coltiletti's success gained him inclusion on the list of the thirty leaders of the year, the records of whom from January 1 to and including the racing of Saturday are as follows:

You are not satisfied with what you are winning—that's why you are reading this ad. This is your opportunity. Act upon your impulse to grasp it.

Your patronage places me in the position that I can guarantee to wager more money for the "right parties." The more that I can play for them the more interesting my proposition is to the stable connections. I want co-operation.

I want to rid the racing sport of those who have shattered the faith of so many. I want to restore your courage; therefore, I want no money in advance, and I will send you strictly last-minute stable information directly from the track, and want no money unless I win for you.

I am circumspect from whom I accept information, as I daily refuse much stable information. I am a veteran in the game; I ought to know. The interested parties benefit only if the horse wins. If it does not, I am not one cent out of pocket. If it wins, the right parties are handsomely remunerated. It is the one and only way.
